Jeanelle is a pioneer and expert in calming techniques and soothing products. Her inspirational and educational “Got Life? Get Comfort!” seminars provide the keys to finding comfort and thriving in our high-pressure world. Her compassion, humor, and insight has made her a sought after speaker, teacher and author. She will make you laugh, make you think, and make you change.

Comfort, the key to resilience and joy

Jeanelle has been working with comfort response for the past two decades. Her focus is helping people cope with the stresses of everyday life. She also specializes in psychosocial comfort interventions for premature babies, birthing mothers, breast cancer patients, cardiac wellness, and pain reduction.

The power of comfort to restore the body, quiet the mind, and renew the soul

Jeanelle is a mother of six who began her comfort research in 1987 by creating soothing products for babies. She is a Comfort Therapist, Childbirth and Early Parenthood Educator, Doula, and Mompreneur. She is known as the “Mother of Comfort” because she patented the first Security Blanket and the first Swaddler designed for infant comfort response. Jeanelle and her husband Greg co-entrepreneur the Comfort Silkie Company and founded the Do Comfort Network. Their products have been featured on “Good Morning America” and in the New York Times.

Comfort; to give strength and hope; to make strong
